

HEAD OF MONATON CO. IS SENTENCED TO YEAR AND ONE DAY IN PRISON

Pierre M. Looker, President of the defunct Monaton Realty and Investment Corporation, which had its main office in this city and branches throughout the country, was today sentenced to serve a year and a day in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for having used the mails to defraud investors in the company's stock. He was found guilty by a jury last night after a trial lasting several weeks.

Ernest D. Baldwin, who defended Looker, made an earnest plea for mercy, asking either for a suspended sentence or a fine. Looker, he said, has a wife and two children and here an unblemished reputation up to the time of his arrest. Assistant United States Attorney Julian Harbridge presented with the verdict of the jury, made no recommendations. "It is a very grave responsibility," said Judge Baldwin in passing sentence, "for any one to attempt to defraud others. There seems to be no other way to bring this man than to make our punishment when an article is taken of the families afforded for making these representations."

Looker, thirty-eight years of age, was of the sentence, made into a convict and sentenced. He had failed a maximum punishment of fourteen years in prison and a fine of $5,000. Looker was found guilty on seven of eight counts. It was testified the company got upward of $1,000,000 from investors, got a dollar of which was returned when its affairs were liquidated by a receiver. His condition was advertised the country over through the Monaton Monthly and by agents employed by the company.

MYSTERY GIRL IDENTIFIED.

Another Here Would Be Victim Was in Poor Health.

Miss Gladstone Morris, a pretty little blonde, twenty-five, is in Bellevue Hospital, a prisoner, charged with attempting to murder her last night she tried to throw herself in front of a Fifth Avenue elevated train at the Fifth Avenue station. She was taken to the hospital by a patrol officer. When she was seen by her physician, Dr. Gladstone Morris, and refused to tell the reason for her act.

Her brother, Walter Morris, an electrician, visited the hospital today and said she lived with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Morris, a widow, and her mother and brother and sister at 85 1st Edgecombe Avenue. He said she had gone to the theatre with a girl friend.

He said Miss Morris had no love affair, but had not been in good health since an operation near the base of the brain last summer.

Best & Co.

Fifth Avenue at Thirty-fifth Street.

THE exceptional response to our White Sales held last January proved:

That more and more women find Best's a good place to shop—and that Best's newest customers, as well as our oldest, had every confidence that the values advertised are exactly as advertised.

In the Sales commencing this Saturday we are duplicating the wonderful values offered in January. Everything that could be included in a white sale is in this one—for yourself, your daughters and the little tots. And every single article, in quality, making and fit, is Best in standard.

You will find it profitable to shop this white sale for immediate needs—and your future ones, too.
